One of Them Declares the Girl Accused Accompanied the Unfortunate Young Man to the Caravansary-Action Likely by the Police Authorities.

NEW YORK, April 11 .- The "New York Herald" this morning prints a highly sensational story regarding the Florence Burns case. It says:

"Two more families are threatened with disruption as a result of the tragedy that cost Walter Brooks his life and placed a loud of suspicion upon Florence Burns. Detective Sergeants Price and McCafferty have succeeded in learning the identity four persons who entered the Glen Island Hotel with Walter Brooks and his ompanion, and who were assigned to rooms at the same time that he was sent up to room No. 12, in which he was shot an hour and a half later.

"Of the two men who are to be called as witnesses when the coroner's inquest is resunced one is married. The other is a husiness associate of the first. is resumed one is married. The other is a business associate of the first, but is not married. The two women are sisters. One is not married; the other is said to have a husbard and to be the mother of two children. The detectives are reticent about this new evidence, but it is understood that the two women live in New Jersey, where the unmarried man is engaged in the brokerage business. "When Walter Brooks and the woman

When Walter Brooks and the woman "When Walter Brooks and the woman who was with him entered the Glen Island Hosel about 9 o'clock in the evening of February 16, he found that an acquaintance, in the company of another man and two women, had just preceded him up the stair. Brooks made it known that he did not want to be recogaized and no word was spoken. His acquaintance, who is married, was accompanied by the unmarried of the sisters and his frieng was with the one who had forget. friend was with the one who had forgot-ten her marriage vows and her children. The identity of this quartet was discov-ered as the result of an examination of the Glen Island Hotel register by a handwriting expert. He found that one man had signed the register for all. They had been registered as Mr. and Mrs. Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. A comparison of handwriting of men under suspicion soon resulted in bringing a confession from one of these west concerned.

"Both of the men have now told their stories. They have taken all of the blame upon their own shoulders and are now only anxious to protect the women who were with them the night that Walter Brooks was shot. The men promise to take the stand and testify to everything that they know about the death of Walter Brooks if the two sisters are not exposed. No promises have been made, but it is possible that some arrangement may be made that will permit the women to hid their misdeeds from the public. The names of the women are known to Detective Serventy Prices and McGarage. tective Sergeants Price and McCafferty, who have consulted with Captain Titus. He has appeared to Assistant District Attorney Schurman, who will have to decide whether the ends of justice can be fully served without calling to the witness stand the women who can tell-whether it was Florence Burns or some other girl who was with Walter Brooks in the Glen Leland Hetal.

Bill That Didn't Pass.

ALBANY, April 11 .- Albert T. Patrick. the convicted murderer of Millionaire William Marsh Rice, has written the following letter to Secretary of State Mc-Donough, with a lead pencil on gold bord cote paper:

Secretary of State, Albany, N. Y.

Dear Sir: I am informed that Warden
Johnson of the state prison at Sing Sing, in last annual report to the state tendent of prisons, called attentio to the mental and bodily ailments and deterioration caused by the solitary confinement of prisoners under sentence of death pending the disposal of their appeals, lasting on an average of nearly two years, so that when the appeal is well taken a severe punishment not contem-plated by law has nevertheless been inplated by law has nevertheless been inflicted, to remedy which a bill was introduced and passed by the Legislature and is now in the hands of the governor. Will you please send me at once a copy of this bill, as it may affect a proceeding which I may take in court, and also kindly notify me when such bill is acted upon by the governor, and oblige.

Yours truly

Yours truly,

Yours truly,

ALBERT T. PATRICK.

Ossining N. Y., April 8, 1992.

The bill which Patrick was inquiring about was introduced by Senator Malby and passed the senate, but the assembly rules committee during the last days of the session failed to report it. This bill provided:

"Pending an appeal such (convicted murderer) defendant shall be kept in such part of such prison as the agent and warden may desire, subject, however, to the above provision as to the persons who shall be allowed access to him." who shall be allowed access to him."

If this amendment had passed there would have been no more solitary con finement of murderers, and the prison au-thorities would have allowed them out-door exercise at stated periods.
